

Terms of Service

Malta Block DSP does not handle or presume control of your private keys at any point. You do not create an account or give us your funds to hold onto. Your funds are never in our possession. Make sure to keep a backup of your private keys in the wallet software you use to connect with Malta Block DSP. Malta Block DSP serves to ease the process of accessing your information and interacting with blockchains.

Malta Block DSP is not responsible for any loss from the use of the software. Despite the thousands of users that successfully utilize Malta Block DSP daily, EOSJS, ScatterJS and other libraries used in the software are actively developed, and unexpected interactions may lead to the loss of funds. Please use caution and care while using the software.

The information provided on Malta Block DSP does not constitute investment advice, financial advice, trading advice, or any other sort of advice and you should not treat any of the website's content as such. Malta Block DSP does not recommend that any cryptocurrency should be bought, sold, or held by you. Do conduct your own due diligence and consult your financial advisor before making any investment decisions.

Translations of Malta Block DSP have been conducted by the community, and the accuracy of the text can not be confirmed by the Malta Block DSP team. Please refer to the English version of the site as the standard default language.
